HEALTH COUNCIL MEETS—NAMES COORDINATOR FOR AREA HEALTH CENTER

The Northern Oxford Health and Service Council's monthly meeting was held Thursday, Dec. 7. Several items of business regarding the opening of the Bethel Area Health Center on Monday, Dec. 11, were discussed. Some necessary policy/procedure details were worked out. Wayne Gersen announced the need for volunteers to remove wallpaper and do painting at the Center the week ends of Dec. 9 and 10, and Dec. 16 and 17.

The Personnel Committee presented its recommendations to the Board for the Health Center Coordinator. Shirley M. Powell was selected for the position.

Mrs. Powell attended the University of Bridgeport (Conn.), and the University of Maine at Farmington in the health services department. She was Program Director for the Connecticut Chapter of the National Hemophilia Foundation in Hamden, Conn., and Assistant to the Public Information Officer, Sacred Heart University, Bridgeport, Conn. She, her husband, Bruce, and their four children live in Hanover. Shirley is an active member of the community and a very welcome addition to the Bethel Area Health Center. She will be a vital member of the health care team.

Anyone interested in volunteering some time for interior renovations and general clean up, contact Wayne Gersen. A special NOHS meeting will be held on Thursday, Dec. 21, at 7 p. m., at the Health Center.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS MEETING LAST THURSDAY EVENING

A traditional Christmas was the theme of the annual Christmas meeting of the Bethel Historical Society held Thursday evening, Dec. 7, in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. Mrs. Helen Morton of the Program Committee focused attention on the many articles, toys, dolls, decorations and Christmas cards, some well over 100 years old, brought in by members and guests which attracted considerable interest.

An added feature of the meeting was the showing of lantern slides c. 1913. These slides and projector were a gift this year of Ralph Hall. Appropriate music prepared by Arlene G. Brown and Mary Valentine accompanied the slides. Operating the projector were Kurt Brown and Stanley Howe.

As usual the refreshments were traditional Christmas favorites including Indian pudding, fruit cakes and cookies.

PRESENTATION OF ANNUAL LIVING NATIVITY PAGEANT SUNDAY, DEC. 17

Bethel's 15th annual Living Nativity pageant will be this Sunday afternoon, Dec. 17, with two showings, at 4:30 and 5:30. This tradition provides the community with something very special to remind it of the real meaning of Christmas and to rekindle the true Christmas spirit of love and understanding among all.

Many people have put in a lot of hours in preparation for this year's pageant, and their efforts are blessed. There is much that goes on "behind the scenes" with 16 separate committees, at various times during the year. Besides all the "actors" involved in the pageant, an estimated 125 to 150 people are part of the Living Nativity every year—an awesome number for a small community.

To celebrate the 15th anniversary, there will be a pot-luck supper after clean-up of the Moses Mason House following the 5:30 performance. Many people are donating goodies for the supper. They are asked to get their donations to the Congregational Church before 5:30, Sunday evening (or call 824-2225 for pick-up if you have no way to get there). All are counting on your commitment, and thank you ahead of time for your kindness. Special thanks, too, to Hathaway's and the IGA for their donations of "extras" needed to complete the supper.

You can still be a part of the Living Nativity if you haven't participated thus far—just by being there and sharing in the spirit. See you Sunday at the Bethel Common. Notice to pageant participants: run-through rehearsal with choir, band, actors, and director at The Wherehouse at 7 o'clock Friday night. On Saturday afternoon be at the Moses Mason House at 2:30 with your costumes for dress rehearsal on the Common.

This last week end was certainly true of the old saying that if you don't like Maine weather, wait a little and it will change. Friday night it was rainy. Saturday morning it was quite mild and not doing anything. Before nine it started snowing which it did all morning, making the roads after the rains of the night before not too good. Sunday the wind blew and being new snow the day before it would keep blowing whirls of snow which if one is out walking or driving, cuts off your vision.

In spite of the snow Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stearns, Pat Saunders and Ira Gibson went Christmas shopping in Berlin, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy said that they have finally gotten settled in their new home and were enjoying it.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hannon and two daughters entertained for supper and evening gettogether. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Tripp and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Arsenault and son.

Sunday morning the Hannon's went over to Murphy's for coffee and the men and Mary Beth went after Hannon's tree. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Coolidge also put in their tree this week end for two girls. Oh, the looks of wonder on the faces of little ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Shimamura went to the Country Way Restaurant for a Christmas party Friday evening. This was for the salaries help at the South Paris Tannery.

Wednesday the National Guard came around at 4:45 a. m. to pick up Ira Gibson, Robert Saunders and Billy Shimamura to take them to Portland for physicals.

Billy Shimamura went down to South Paris Thursday and passed his test for drivers license.

The Sunday after Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stearns entertained at a boiled dinner: her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy and daughter Della Seames and grandchildren Dawn and Ryan.

Last Sunday Debbie Seames and children entertained her parents, the Robert Stearns.

Frank Murphy got laid off at Eke Industries in New Hampshire and started work for the Town of Bethel.

Billy Shimamura went bowling in Rumford Saturday night with the Young Life Campaigners.

Mrs. Dick (Sue) Angevine had a birthday Dec. 7. She like some of the rest of us, hasn't been feeling well.

The 6th I was feeling well at all and I'll be if Wilfred and wife South Carolina didn't call and say that he had been out of work all day.

Kristy Angevine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Angevine, went to Middle School dance Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Angevine and Betty Blake went down to Lewiston, Dec. 5. Ernest went to a meeting at Holiday Inn so Alberta and Betty went shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden MacDougall went down to Rumford Saturday to help move his father and wife, Dr. and Mrs. James MacDougall and Mildred Doucette to their new apartment.

Alan Chapman flew from Portland Jetport Thursday, Dec. 7, to Jacksonville, Fla., where he visited his sister Kathy, and cousin, Jane Taylor and flew back to Portland Monday.

Mrs. Frank Chapman and Macki Chapman talked to Betsy Chapman Wise in Lexington, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman went to Open House at Evergreen Valley Thursday night. The ski resort has redone the restaurant and installed a disco. The restaurant is now called Momma's Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Laban went to Newcastle, Maine for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbert had their anniversary Dec. 6, and had a quiet evening at home.

Andy Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and Matthew Laban, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Laban, were from the Cub Scout Den which gathered the most returnable bottles for their den. As a prize their den (I believe six boys) were treated to pizza at Charlie's Place Sunday.

Doug Smith came home from Hyannis, Mass., the 1st and went back the 3rd.

Dec. 5 I went down to my folks, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen in Norway and we went to Lewiston, shopping.

A beautiful week end. The honeysuckle bush in back of our house and the uncut goldenrod bushes are like a winter wonderland. The snow was damp and heavy and it snowed all Saturday morning. I watched a football game on Channel 6 and they had snow and sild and stewed all around. Good weather to be inside. Sunday the football players wore gloves. With the wind and snow blowing a gale Sunday it was good popcorn weather. After watching all the flood pictures on TV, Maine is still a good place to be even if we do have to carry water.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the family of Mrs. Eugene Hazleton of West Sumner. She passed away Dec. 7, after several months illness. The funeral was Saturday.

Doris Lawrence had a weeks vacation from Penley Corp. She and Marietta Penley went to Berlin Saturday and Monday she went to see Dr. Scott Masters, the eye doctor at Lewiston and Mrs. Penley accompanied her.

I am all set for cold weather. I bought a new thermometer and put it outside the kitchen window. When the one on the front of the house said -15° this Monday morning, the one on the kitchen window said 45° above. I got a good bargain, huh?

David and Sherry Lyons spent Sunday night and Monday at Portland.

Herbert Stevens is working nights again after being on days awhile.

Eveline Barrett had dinner with Joe at Ledgewood Dec. 6. It was their 51st wedding anniversary.

Leona Yeaton is spending some time with her daughter, Joanne Martin and family, at Minot.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Yeaton and family have moved to Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Lawrence went to Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Emery's Sunday at Mechanic Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Records and Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Card for birthday dinner for Maynard and Carroll. A delicious dinner and good time. Joe Kalinowsky had a birthday also, but he failed to show up.

Mrs. Janet Cohen has a different car, similar to old one.

Callers at Lawrence's: Maureen, Sherry, Brenda Millett, Lena Kangas, Dale, Sandra, Jeff and Jimbo Coffin, Eveline Barrett.

Top Corner hill was hard to climb Saturday in the snow storm. Slushy on the bottom and snow on top and the old wheels hated to move. Old man winter hit us with a bang.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hyam were in town Saturday.

Dr. T. P. Nangle was still in intensive care Saturday, Dec. 9.

German Diary

by David Morton

As the Morton family heads by tour bus to Paris, France, on this Thanksgiving day, my thoughts turn to several happenings that have taken place since the close of a very successful football season.

The family had been to East Berlin earlier this fall on an Army sponsored tour, but the contrast between life styles on one side of the wall and the other are not fully apparent until you know personally some lives effected by Communist rule.

A shopping trip to East Berlin for Ann and I was a tedious and impatient-run (no free enterprise).
This had one advantage for us in that you don't need to shop around for better prices; it will be the same price everywhere. Sales clerks seemed to be rather indifferent as to whether they sell you an item or not. In order to purchase or even look closely at an item, you queue up for 20 minutes or more because of a short supply of store help. We did manage to buy two teddy bears, and Fran in Germany for reasons not completely explained to us they fled to Austria and then to East Berlin years ago. The rent for their tiny third floor apartment is 42 East marks a month (paid to the government) and Ross earns $800 per month as a young person in a government-owned railroad job. Fran earns 1000 East marks per month in a hospital. Their medical, insurance, and education costs are paid for, and their salaries enable them to live in a modest way. The nearest food to meat, and prepared quite inexpensively, but the costs of "neat extras" are exorbitantly high.

Very often items which East Germany exports to the West are available to Ross and his family
at six to eight times the cost paid for these items in the West. This is most frustrating to them.

Fran could get a better job in West Berlin at much better pay, but if she should return more than an hour after her work is finished, the authorities would be at the door for her children.

They wait ten years for a car in East Berlin and 16 years in other areas of East Germany. The prices are prohibitive for most, and there is no choice of style or color.

Very recently a cache of cyanide
was discovered by workers digging
in the Spandau area west of Berlin's Mitte (center). Items like this and the bunkers and tunnels in our Duppel area continue to re-

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
Here is a question I would like to have answered in this paper. If one has a dog and said dog is used outside the house, of what their conditions about 6 A. M. and left till after dark without one iota of shelter of any kind—should you be a friend to the owner and let him abuse that dog—or should you be a friend to the dog and complain on the owner. Dogs have feelings like people. I know a lot of people but I don't know one that would want to be tied out in a similar fashion. If he got tired and wanted to sit down—sit in the snow. If he wanted to lay down
let him or her lay in the snow.
Would you be very happy that way, I wonder?

An evaluation and wrap-up session of the Outside-In project was held on Monday, Dec. 11, in the

ing were representatives of the six historical societies in Oxford field, Rumford, Waterford and Bethel) which were involved in the project in addition to Sheila Mc-Donald, Project Director, and Ron-

sored by the Maine State Museum and the Maine Council for Humanities and Public Policy. It was designed to focus attention on the role of outside influences upon the history of a community through an exhibit and public discussion
session in each town.

PIANO STUDENTS ENJOY CHRISTMAS PROGRAM/PARTY

Piano students of Mrs. Donald Brown enjoyed their annual Christmas program and party at her home Friday afternoon.

Those attending were Pamela
Mathews, Todd Davis, Jonathan
Morris, Mark Titcomb, Michelle Angevine, Susan Vieneire, Rachel Mills, Sondra Greenleaf, Jay Davis, Katherine Swain, Mindy Mc-Elmurry, Kassi and Brandon Sal-way, Emma Page and Nancy Cummings.

Our guide of the trip to Paris
is a "fellow Berliner" who escaped from the East in 1956 when he was 22 years old. His family had fled the bombing in 1943 and returned to East Berlin in 1945
and he realized the full impact of Communist domination. The mounting controls forced him to leave his home and family behind, and his one hope is for a unified Germany and a return to the city
he loves.

As the family ate a picnic-lunch
for their 1978 Thanksgiving day dinner, we also missed our fantasy friends at home. Thoughts of pride in being an American made this a most meaningful Thanksgiving.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST
Guardian Angels?

At Christmas time we often see ornaments and pictures of angels
—usually they are seen having wings, a halo and clothed in bright colors. We imagine angels look like this, perhaps the artists of ages ago thought so too.

Are there really angels? If so—who are they? Let's see what the Bible says, but first see the little children at Christmas—in all their innocence—and adults too—delight themselves in the lovely make believe angels. Little do some of us understand that there are two kinds of angels; first the fallen angels, the imprisoned ones
—being chained in darkness and in this class the unimprisoned ones that follow their leader, Satan.
So be it, now lets go to the angels likened to Christmas, angels who declared the birth of Christ, singing—"Glory to God on the highest—Peace on earth—
good will to men."

Angels are real—the Bible tells us to take heed of strangers for we never know when we will entertain an angel.

Angels are sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation (Heb. 1:14). Angels remind us of our high rank as human beings, and our exalted destiny as Christians. We, who are "made, but little lower than angels," may become as the angels of God in heaven (Psa. 8:5 and Matthew 22:30).

They set forth before us an example of joyous and perfect fulfillment of God's will, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven" i.e., by the angels.

Perhaps the most touching verse is "There is joy among the angels
over one sinner that repenteth." Luke 15:7, 10.

No wonder the angels at the birth of Jesus Christ sang glorious songs of joy—knowing that He as Lord and Saviour would bring about a new covenant where-in He came as High Priest of good things to come" (Heb. 9:11). The angels knew that Christ would lead sinners to righteousness.

That's why Christmas.

CHRISTMAS
Christ's Birthday

"For unto us a Savior is born," in Bethlehem—2,000 years ago, the promise of God—His only begotten Son to live among the people—that we, even today, can have the hope of a righteous life. He came as a light to illumine our hearts that we might be brought from and out of the darkness of unbelief.

The Bible says that by the sin of one man, Adam—all have sinned,—yet by one Man—"Jesus," we may find favor with God. His promise is so fantastic that we are unable to describe the beautiful life He offers.

Christmas is a time of rejoicing for the Christian.
For all people it is a good time to sort things out —

Perhaps there is the one who never asked Jesus to come into their heart—wondering—"Can He bear my burdens?"—
"Make me clean and white as snow?"—"Give me peace
and understanding?"

Perhaps there is the one who once had the glow of Christ about him but now has lost the radiance by preferring to live outside of Christ.

Perhaps there is the Christian who having accepted
Christ has not made Him Lord of their lives by not committing themselves to Him.

Christmas or any day of the year is for you to ask God for forgiveness—for falling short—receiving Him as Lord and Savior, to join the multitude of heavenly hosts to sing the praises of Him. "For whom He justified, He glorified." Rom. 8:30.

For those who lost the radiance of Christ—put aside all earthly things and fellowship with believers, remembering: Heb. 10:38 "Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, My soul shall have no pleasure in him."

For those Christians who failed to commit themselves fully—the words in Rev. 3:16 are to be considered: "So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot,
I will spue thee out of my mouth."

I John 1:9: "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

I John 1:10: "If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us."

MERRY CHRISTMAS

ANDOVER SELECTMEN

MEET TUESDAY, DEC. 5
The Board of Selectmen of Andover met in regular session on Tuesday, Dec. 5 at the town office.

The selectmen accepted with thanks a $1,000 gift from Ljany and Eunice Phister to be used for the tennis court.

The board sent a letter of thanks to Charles Jaros for all his efforts in obtaining a government grant for part of the funds used to construct the tennis court and for arranging for the completion of the project.

A group of citizens from Andover and Upton including John Magoon and Andrew Wood Products, Mr. Murphy of Seven Islands Land Co., two Selectmen from Upton and Norman Ferguson Jr., County Commissioner, met with the Andover Selectmen to discuss the feasibility of keeping the East B Hill Road open for the winter.

The Selectmen did not feel Andover could undertake this additional playing as they are already responsible for 40 miles of roads in Andover including the Lake Road to South Arm. The Upton Selectmen stated that their equipment was limited and if they broke down it might not be possible for them to keep the road maintained. After much discussion the Upton Selectmen said they would be interested in providing the road.

Mr. Magoon said Andover Wood Products would be willing to help with loading sand. The Andover Selectmen said the town would be willing to help them in case of breakdown or other problems if it did not interfere with their own road care.

A warrant of $6,247.67 was signed. A major part of this amount went to repair the Michigan loader.

Ill, Irving Cummings and Wilfred Coolidge in the Rumford hospital; Harris Tyler and Haakon Olson are sick at home.

The ladies had "thank you" from the Greenwood Little League and the Pine Tree Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Get well cards were signed for Juanita Allen and Cora Bennett.

The Unit members will help furnish the refreshments for the New Year's Dance.

There will be no meetings for the Auxiliary on Dec. 21 and Jan. 4. Members should pay their 1979 dues.

It's an exciting adventure to watch this creation in progress.

Christmas party for the children will be on Tuesday, Dec. 19 11:15. Santa will be here. Many thanks to the Senior Citizens who made such beautiful mittens for the children and to the Rotary Club for the books to give to the children.

Don't forget that the Parent Group is sponsoring a bake sale at the Bethel Savings Bank Friday, Dec. 15 from 9 till 4.

Children's Center staff wishes everyone a Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year!

Greenwood City

—Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres.—

On Wednesday of this week I went out to gather greens, for decorations. These have been symbolic for our season for a long time.

Clad in a sweater and jacket, warm cap and leather mittens lined with a woolen pair, I left the road to climb. The snow was not deep. Probably my last jaunt without snowshoes until spring. I felt like the white throated sparrows at my feeder this morning. They looked as if they had increased their bulk, by expanding their plumage.

My first encounter was with a red and a gray squirrel in the grove of hemlocks. The red is sure-footed but its leap is not equal to the gray's. As the gray approached a tree which red was trying to defend, red was outwitted by the large squirrel. With little red in pursuit, gray led him to the tip of a hemlock limb divided into a wide fork. Don't Let the Holidays Get You Down

We should all look forward to the holidays. And yet, it is amazing to note how many people can hardly get through them without a great deal of stress and exhaustion.

The fast pace of modern living seems to make people almost frantic in their approach to the holiday season. Pressures build for both the business person and the homemaker, and the pressures of all social, business and family obligations in a short span of time.

What many of us don't realize is that the way we feel depends on a great extent on our overall health. No one can feel relaxed, pleasant, and capable of coping with a busy schedule if his body is not functioning properly.

Even under normal circumstances, there is a difference in the reactions of those individuals whose health is up to par and those whose health is less than should be expected. Add to that the overindulgence in food and beverage during the holiday season, the drain on mental and physical capacities, and the result is obvious.

Since the central nervous system influences every part of the body, stress shows up in extreme fatigue, nervous tension, and lowered resistance against disease and disability.

It's easy to say "slow down for the holidays," but your doctor of chiropractic offers some sound advice based on his health care experience and training.

1. Before you jump on the merry-go-round of activities, pull out and pitch all the non-essential projects that were time-consuming and wasteful the previous year.

2. Concentrate on essentials, and pace yourself. Make up a list of projects to be done by priority and allow sufficient time for them.

3. Don't try to get all your entertaining into the holidays. If you "owe" someone dinner or social response, try to schedule it after the holiday. Since other people suffer the same frustrating schedule as you do, they might also appreciate an invitation when the pace slackens.

4. Resist the temptation to over-eat or to indulge in an excess of rich foods.

5. Get plenty of sleep and relaxation.

6. Keep an important place on that calendar of busy activities for periodic health examinations, including a spinal examination.

Your doctor of chiropractic reminds you that having a happy holiday depends on staying healthy, being energetic, and being free of pain and illness.

Persistent or recurring aches in the back and limbs may suggest a possible spinal or pelvic problem. This often requires a structural correction of the cause in order to relieve the condition. Although drugs may hide the pain temporarily, the spine and sacroiliac must be aligned to their proper position for normal function.

CHRISTMAS BALL REMINISCENT OF VINTAGE CROSBY MOVIE

Bing Crosby would have been proud of it. The setting, the music and the mood were like the scenes from Crosby's 1940's movie from which came one of the most famous of Christmas songs — "White Christmas". Snow drifted past traditionally lighted windows of The Bethel Inn, framed in its embracing set of hospitable birch branches, while the crowd arrived last Saturday night to be greeted by warmth and cheer inside Bethel's most elegant gathering place.

Like he had just stepped out of a Norman Rockwell painting, Odd Lyngholm, dressed in the garb of a colonial innkeeper, greeted all at the door. Social mixing was then the order of the evening as merry-makers escaped the month's first really wintry blasts outside.

Gordon Howe and his orchestra created a nostalgic, musical wave that swept everyone to their feet throughout the evening with music especially favored by the 35-65 set — some great Glenn Miller favorites: "In the Mood", "Pennsylvania 6-5000" and "Little Brown Jug".

Three surgeon Fred Burk in a conservative Tyrolean suit and Rumi Head were voted king and queen respectively of the evening's affair.

Louise Robiller with her Rotary-ann lieutenants instigated, promoted and stage managed for the second year in a row, an event which for over 200 people has become a part of the "good old days".

During the winter term the following Gould Academy students will be in Europe as part of the school's Foreign Exchange Program. Peter Chandler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Chandler, of Bethel, will live in Barcelona, Spain; Shawn Carroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Carroll, Gorham, N. H., in Sancoins, France; Suzanne Vall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton W. Vall, Woodstock, Vt., will live in Chantilly, France; and Doris Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip McKenna, Commack, N. Y., in addition, Robin Sprague, daughter of Mrs. Marilyn Chase, South Freeport, and Andy Benson, son of Ms. Anne Benson and Bradley Benson, Bethel, a student at Telstar Regional High School, Bethel, who is also taking advantage of Gould's exchange program, have spent the fall term in Altensteig, Germany.

This program allows American students to spend a term or two in France, Germany, Spain or Mexico, while living with a local family and attending the local school. Travel is included and the students are exposed, first hand, to life and education in a foreign country.

Certainly this is an excellent way to learn the language, customs, history and culture, as well as serving as ambassadors for Gould and the U. S. A. In return for these opportunities, three students from Germany and France are spending a year as boarding students at Gould. They are Bernhard Ritter, Altensteig, Germany; Modeste Monnich, Breitbrunn, West Germany; and Inge Maissin, Paris, France.
